THE PASSING OF A GREAT HERD.

Howell Rees & Sons, with the dispersion of their herd, have rightfully taken a prominent place in American Shorthorn history. During the last decade the cattle from this herd have set a high standard in American show yards.

This herd was founded nearly twenty years ago with the most fashionable bred and attractive females available. Every bull used during the life of this herd has been nationally known. Howell Rees, a practical cattleman, before he entered the breeding of Shorthorns, knew the qualifications of a good bull as but few have ever learned. His sons profited by the practical schooling, which resulted in the production of the ideal Shorthorn, until their herd is known far and wide as the home of good Shorthorn cattle.

Unfortunate in the loss of both herd bulls this summer, this herd of cows comes on the market earlier than planned; therefore they will not carry the usual Rees fitting and bloom but I dare say that the cows constituting this offering, more than half of which have calves at foot or will calve within thirty days, will afford the buying public one of the greatest opportunities of the year to replenish breeding herds with improving cows. It is an event that constructive Shorthorn breeders of the Central West should attend.

N. G. KRASCHEL.

BLOOD THAT BRED ON.

IT WAS THE TWENTIETH DAY OF JUNE, 1906, that the name of Howell Rees was first written into the Shorthorn Hall of Fame. That great day was in Kansas City when this man and his associates bought Imp. Choice Goods in the dispersal of the Tebo Lawn Shorthorns at the record price of $5,500. The purchasers announced in the sale were: Howell Rees, Pilger, Nebraska; Owen Kane, Wisner, Nebraska, and A. B. Clarke, Wayne, Nebraska. They were the new owners of Choice Goods. Howell Rees came again into national prominence when in that same sale he purchased the champion cow, Ruberta, at $1,325. The other purchase made by Mr. Rees in this famous auction was that of Sweet Violet 4th, a daughter of Nonpareil King at $900. This was the time and place that brought the Rees farm at Pilger, Nebraska, before the Shorthorn breeders of the world.

Choice Goods went to his Nebraska home at seven years of age, after making the greatest show and breeding record that any bull of the breed had made up to that time. He was four years a grand champion, and the first ten bull calves by him sold at private sale for a total of $8,880. He and his get in the Tebo Lawn sale brought over $39,000. Ruberta began her career as a calf in the hands of J. G. Robbins & Sons of Horace, Indiana, and after winning for them for three years, she went to Tebo Lawn along with Choice Goods and eight other famous cattle. She was mated twice to Choice Goods. Both calves were white. One (Fair Louisiana) was born on the World's Fair Ground in St. Louis in 1904, and christened by Senator T. J. Wornall of Liberty, Missouri. The other was Fair Goods, sold in the dispersal sale to J. W. McDermott of Kahoka, Missouri. When Ruberta went to Nebraska she was mated to Golden Goods, a son of Choice Goods out of Golden Abbotsburn by Young Abbotsburn. Golden Goods was the only living bull representing the combination of the champions at the World's Fair in Chicago and the World's Fair in St. Louis.

Ruberta produced a roan bull calf from this service for Mr. Rees. The calf was christened Ruberta's Goods and from his first appearance in the show ring until he was an aged bull, he was a first prize winner and a champion. During the years that the sons and daughters of Ruberta's Goods were in the show ring they were winners. Although Mr. Rees did not receive from Choice Goods nor Ruberta any families of cattle, Ruberta's Goods fully compensated him for the money spent for these grand champions. Sweet Violet 4th was five years old when she went to Nebraska. She was in the Tebo Lawn show herd in 1902 and was a daughter of Sweet Violet 2nd, a cow which went to Tebo Lawn at a cost of $3,705. Lady Violet 3rd by Choice Goods was a calf at foot when she went to Nebraska. She was out of a daughter of Velveteen Prince bred by B. O. Cowan of Missouri. Both of these Violet females were from the famous Cruickshank "Woods Violet" family and both of them laid foundation for producing cattle that were great winners in the Rees herd.

Although seventeen years have elapsed since these great cattle went to the Rees farm the blood they carried still asserts itself wherever found. It seems almost certain that other great cattle will yet be produced from the blood that they inherit from these aristocrats.
